EXTREMISTS FIND FLAWS IN PEACE

Criticism Government for Giving Up Its Original Demand for an Unconditional Surrender.

"ANOTHER MAJUBA PEACE."

Kitchener's Work So Stopped by Doctor Jameson—Suspension of Constitution of Cape Colony Is Deemed Dangerous.

BY HERBERT PAUL.
SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK
HERALD AND ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
London, June 14.—(Copyright, 1902.)—The Eighty Club, which celebrated its majority on Wednesday night by a dinner and toast, is the nearest equivalent to the Liberal party possesses to the Transvaal League.
It sends out speakers to all parts of England and assists actively at contested elections. It has passed through many vicissitudes, but it is at the present time more prosperous than it has been at any time since its foundation.

Originally known as "Grey's Committee," after its founder, now Lord Grey, in those days a Liberal, it was christened the "Eighty Club" after the general election of 1890. It really came of age, therefore, a year ago, but it followed the example of the King in postponing the ceremonial observance for twelve months.

In 1898 home rule threatened the Eighty Club with dissolution, and it lost, in fact, about a third of its members, but the losses were soon made good, and Mr. Gladstone became its president.

Since his death the office has been annual,
and the president this year is Mr. Asquith.

Divided by the war, like the rest of the Liberal party, the club was nevertheless unanimous in the choice of Mr. Asquith, whose conspicuous services to liberalism differences of opinion could obscure. In his speech on Wednesday night Mr. Asquith gratefully recalled the club's assistance to the opposition by the means of a bill.
He greeted Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman as the leader of the Liberal party, thus intimating in unmistakable language that all solemn words of the club are directed toward the Liberal party.

The origin of the war is ancient history.
Liberalism at first cannot quarrel over the terms of peace.

The Government, as Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman pointed out, has pursued the Liberal policy in giving up the demand for unconditional surrender, and the Liberal party is satisfied with the result.

Signs of discontent are not, however, wanting among the extreme advocates of ascendancy.

Doctor Jameson is reported to have said that another Majuba peace had been made, and Mr. Seddon, who wanted to let loose the Boers, is seriously perturbed.

The Government can afford to disregard this "hair-shirt" justice, his colleague in trivially in carrying out "Kitchener's peace."

They will be heartily supported by their political opponents, and by all the most sensible of their political friends, but if they propose anything so serious as to suspend the Constitution of Cape Colony they will raise a storm compared with any raised about the war with children's play.

Mr. Chamberlain has admitted that such a step could only be taken by act of Parliament, and such an act could only be passed by the present union of the House.

The destruction of freedom in a British colony would be an old result of a war for the franchise, and the Liberal party is not prepared to accept it.

The Cape is a colony, and it is not possible to shrink from doing what would cause uneasiness in every self-governing part of the Empire.

BERNHARDT HAD GOOD WEEK.
Played "Francesca da Rimini" Under Grau and Frohman Auspices.

HERALD AND ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
London, June 14.—(Copyright, 1902.)— Maurice Grau and Charles Frohman, who have inaugurated this week their season of French plays at the Garrick Theater, are very well content with their success.

During the coronation week, she will appear in "Francesca da Rimini," "The Hamlet," "M. Cagliostro" and "The Crown of Thorns."

Next week the Garrick will appear in repertoire and monologues.

This same week will be a great treat to all interested in French literature and drama. Following the Garrick, the Garrick will be the star of the first week of her engagement, she will appear in "La Dame aux Camellias," "M. Cagliostro" and
"The Crown of Thorns."

PROGRAMME OF THE NEW FRENCH CABINET

Includes Income Tax, Reduction of Military Service and Enforcement of Law of Associations.

COLDLY RECEIVED BY NATION.

Combes Ministry Has Difficult Task Before It in Restoration of Elasticity to Financial Condition of the Republic.

BY J. CORNELLY.
SPECIAL BY CABLE TO THE NEW YORK
HERALD AND ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
Paris, June 14.—(Copyright, 1902.)—It has been observed that, in the case of vigorous animals, the length of life is in relation to the duration of their interuterine existence.
Ministries, being creatures of convention, create this law. If they did not, the Combes Cabinet would not have long to live, for it was formed with exceptional rapidity.

It is bound to say that it is a Cabinet of the second rank, but we have in France a proverb that appears to fit its case exactly: "Faut de graves on mange des merles," which may be freely interpreted: "When you can't get quail be content with larks." M. Waldeck-Rousseau was the quail of Combes is the lark. By that I do not mean to suggest that he is a nonentity. His language is clear and precise. Besides, credit must be given him for having set a proper valuation on the collaboration of M. Rouvier as Minister of Finance, for M. Rouvier inspired in financial circles that sort of confidence which can be commanded but not explained.

M. Rouvier will be the chief man in the Cabinet, whose first task will be to study and solve budgetary problems and restore some little elasticity to the financial condition which has suffered from the very reforms instituted by the Waldeck-Rousseau Cabinet.

French Income Tax.
This will be a difficult task to crack, for the new Cabinet's programme compels one to make a selection of the very first importance—the substitution of a general income tax for taxes at present in force.

An income tax is one of the articles of the Republican creed, and has been for thirty-two years. The French, as a nation, are very conservative and opposed to innovations.

Combes is also to be congratulated on having retained M. Delcasse as Minister of Foreign Affairs. His retention, for that matter, was a necessity. One cannot dismiss a Minister who has just got back from Russia.

General Andre's continuation in office is equally necessary. General Andre was the object of daily insult by the reactionaries, and his retention is a necessity. One cannot dismiss a Minister who has just got back from Russia.

The selection of M. Camille Pelletan for the Navy Department is original. M. Pelletan is a journalist of much talent, who has been a member of the Chamber of Deputies for many years. He has too much to do with the Navy Department to be a Minister.

Now, M. Bulot shares with General Andre the reputation of being a "reactionary."

COMMODORE NICHOLSON OF OUR NAVY RECOMMENDS PE-RU-NA---OTHER PROM- INENT MEN TESTIFY.

Commodore Nicholson of the United States Navy in a letter from 1817 R. street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., says:

"Your Peru-na has been and is now used by so many of my friends and acquaintances as a sure cure for catarrh that I am convinced of its curative qualities and I unhesitatingly recommend it to all persons suffering from that complaint."

S. NICHOLSON.
Dr. W. G. Hunter, U. S. Minister from Guatemala, ex-member of Congress from Kentucky, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes: "I am fully satisfied that your Peru-na is a valuable remedy for catarrh, and I have taken two bottles and am entirely cured."

FRANK W. COLBATH.
Mr. J. C. Hoffman, Rea, Mo., writes: "About a year ago I was suffering with catarrh and I wrote to Dr. Hartman of my symptoms and he promptly gave me advice.
I used Peru-na faithfully and I feel better than I have for five years, and all praise is due Peru-na. I have a good appetite and all the symptoms of catarrh are gone. I believe that I am cured and Peru-na cured me.
I think Peru-na is all that is claimed for it."

J. C. HOFFMAN.
The day was when men of prominence hesitated to give their testimonials to proprietary medicines for publication. This remains true to-day of most proprietary medicines. But Peru-na has become so justly famous, its merits are known to so many people of high and low station, that no one hesitates to see his name in print recommending Peru-na.

The highest men in our nation have given Peru-na a strong endorsement. Men representing all classes and stations are equally represented.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be glad to give you his valuable advice gratis.

NEW YORK'S MURDER MYSTERY.
Stranger Who Went to Hotel With Beautiful Woman Found Dead.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Pittsburg, Pa., June 14.—A case strikingly similar to the Florence Burges-Walter Brooks murder mystery in New York came to light here last night when the body of S. H. Pallen of Dayton, O., was found in a room in the Boston Hotel.

Pallen registered at the hotel at a late hour Thursday night with a beautiful woman as "J. W. Johnson and wife, Cleveland, O." The woman has disappeared. No one saw her leave the hotel and her identity is shrouded in mystery. Pallen died from poison. Indications point to murder, but it may be a case of suicide. The quantity of poison used is remarkable, and it is the belief that the man did not take it voluntarily.

KID LAVIGNE BECOMES INSANE.
Former Light-Weight Champion Is Now a Raving Maniac.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Stockton, Cal., June 14.—Kid Lavigne, one-time light-weight champion of the world, became a raving maniac this morning, and is now under restraint in the State Hospital in this city, where he will be kept pending developments in his condition. Attempts to pacify him were in vain, and the authorities were called upon to take charge of him.

Lavigne has had a brilliant career in the prize ring. A few months ago he broke his arm and injured the same member again in his recent fight with Britt of San Francisco.

As a former prizefighter he knew all about good legs, but his connection with the grand opera ballet cost him the privilege of being presented to Mme. Loubet after the race.

By an operative coincidence, Verdi ran second. He would have won easily, but Paris, June 14.—(Copyright, 1902.)—A duel between Prince Georges Stourdza and the young Prince de Sagan this week was the outcome of bad blood between them for a long time.

Hostilities began with a bout at batons at the Elysee Palace three weeks ago. Seconds were sent, but Prince Georges Stourdza was under the age for duelling, so the encounter was postponed.

Both met at Havre the other day, and the duel was fought in the Parc des Princesses, without the "gallery" which is now common to duels in Paris. The combat was very exciting, and it was a relief to the spectators when Prince Georges Stourdza resigned, and would not fight, allowing the seconds to stop the encounter.

GREAT CROWDS MAY NOT MATERIALIZE

Those Who Expected Multitude in London Coronation Day Surprised by Present Outlook.

HERALD AND ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC.
London, June 14.—(Copyright, 1902.)— Where is the great crush of people London was to have during coronation week?

Is there going to be a great slump, such as occurred during the diamond jubilee?

These are the questions which are agitating Londoners interested in the event from a pecuniary standpoint.

The owners of the great stands with seats priced at from 2 to 15 guineas, and who have paid hundreds of pounds for the bookings were 40 per cent behind.

It is not, however, until yet the railways have not made plans to handle the traffic.

This was told to me in the offices of three big railway systems: "We do not anticipate extremely large crowds," said one of them. "We are taking a lesson from the jubilee. People expect the crush will be terrible. The prices of seats are high and comfort is impossible. Therefore, many will stay at home. We have had few bookings for trains."

"Of course, we will run some extra trains early enough to get the people here in the early morning, but the making of the extra trains is impossible. Therefore, many
few bookings for trains."
